SEAL FISHERIES.

Alaska Territory Proves a Valuable Purchase.

THE PRICE MORE THAN PAID BY SEAL SKINS.

A House Committee to Investigate the Morals Existing Among the People of Alaska—Internal Revenue Collections. Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Chairman Poin- dexter Dunn, of the house committee on merchant marine and fisheries, has summoned ten witnesses to appear before the committee on January 7 to testify in regard to the Alaska seal fisheries "which his committee is now engaged in investigating.

The resolution under which the committee is operating empower it to inquire into any violation of contract with the United States by the Alaska Commercial company; also to inquire as to the moral status of the inhabitants incident to the almost complete control of St. George and St. Paul islands by the Alaska Commercial company.

"These seal fisheries," said Mr. Dunn to a representative of the United Press, "are the most valuable in the world, and our investigation is directed to the question as to whether the United States can, by any means, secure more revenue from them and at the same time preserve the fisheries. There are two other seal fisheries, that at Commander island, and that off the mouth of the Platte river, in South America. There was at one time a seal fishery off Japan, but that is now practically extinct. So far the United States has received from the Alaskan fisheries about $7,000,000 from these fisheries direct besides an indirect revenue which amounts to about $3,000,000. The whole territory of Alaska cost the United States about $7,500,000. So you see the purchase has been a profitable one."

The testimony so far adduced does not show a high state of morals among the people, and the committee hope to arrive at some conclusion that will promote the cause of good morals and civilization among the natives of Alaska.

Internal Revenue Collections.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The collections of internal revenue during the first five months of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1889, amounts to $53,091,739, being an increase of $1,231,186 over the collections during the corresponding period of last year. The receipts from spirits $29,306,364, an increase of $1,575,854; from tobacco $12,965,810, a decrease of $300,606; from fermented liquors $10,465,583, an increase of $54,316; from oleomargarine $213,653, an increase of $20,317; from banks and bankers $5,717, an increase of $5,362; from miscellaneous $34,668, a decrease of $34,553. The receipts for November last were $1,074,411 greater than those for November, 1888.

Prospects for a Big Time.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The number of civic organizations that have informed the inaugural committee of their intention to take part in the inaugural parade is eighty-nine up to date. Seventy-six of these organizations comprise 15,458 men. The number of men in the other organizations have not been reported. Quarters have been secured for the majority of these organizations. The military organizations are not included in the number given above. All the organizations that will be here have not yet reported, but from the data now in the possession of the inaugural committee, it is evident that the parade is going to reach colossal proportions.

A Deserted Capitol.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Not a dozen senators and members were at the capitol Monday and these only remained long enough to open their mail and answer a few letters. The house sub-committee on appropriations consisting of Messrs. Randall, Ryan and Cannon, was the only committee of the house or senate in session. They were hard at work preparing the sundry civil appropriation bill. Several bureau officers of the executive department were before them.

A Prisoner Pardoned.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The president has pardoned John S. Sullivan, of the District of Columbia, convicted of manslaughter, and sentenced June 8, 1888, to one year's imprisonment at Albany, and $50 fine. The execution of the sentence was suspended by the court.

THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER DISASTER.

It is Now Believed That the Loss of Life Will Reach Sixty.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 26.—William Donohue, one of the clerks of the burned steamer Katie Adams, has arrived here from the wreck. When the yawl capsized with him and Clerk George Corbett the last he saw of his colleague he was floating down the river, clinging to a small ladder. Donohue managed to get on to a bale of cotton, and was rescued some six miles below Commerce by some negroes. He says Corbett may possibly have been rescued further down the river.

It is probable that the number of lives lost will never be accurately stated. The most conservative estimate is thirty-five. Out of a party of fifteen white laborers which boarded the steamer below Friarspoint only two are said to have been saved. If this be true the loss of life may reach sixty, as many negroes who were on the lower deck lost their lives in attempting to swim ashore from the stern of the burning steamer. The boat and her cargo were valued at $145,000.

Gone With the Cash.

TIPTON, Ind., Dec. 26.—Considerable uneasiness was caused here by the reported flight of W. F. Shaw, of Chicago, with about $20,000 worth of the Columbia Building and Loan association, of which he was secretary, which is held in this county.

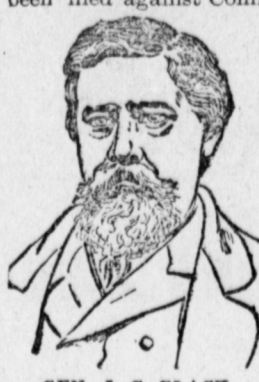

Shows His Standing.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Dec. 26.—George F. Mellin, of this city, recently failed, has filed a statement of liabilities which foots up $61,649. There are no assets. Among the principal creditors is William F. Swan, of Denver, Col., $26,000.

COMMISSIONER BLACK SUED.

An Old Soldier Wants One Hundred Thousand Dollars Damage.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—A suit at law has been filed against Commissioner of Pensions

GEN. J. C. BLACK.

J. C. Black for $100,000 damages. The suit is brought by Capt. Oscar Dunlap through his attorney, Gen. J. G. Bigelow. The plaintiff charges in his bill that on account of personal malice the defendant "sporting" away his vested rights as a wounded veteran under the pension laws of his country. This is the first suit for damages ever filed against a commissioner of pensions. The grievances of the plaintiff, as related in the bill, are to the effect that he is entitled to a pension of $72 per month from the date of his discharge, his injuries being the loss of his right hand and foot and a fracture of the skull, the latter causing a loss of mind and memory, and that notwithstanding the fact that the law fixed this amount to be paid for injuries such as his, the defendant has refused and still refuses to allow him his legal rights in this respect and pays him a much smaller amount than $72 per month. He claims that there are $5,000 due him on this account.

By act of congress the pension for the loss of a hand or foot or both hands or feet was raised to $75 per month in 1880 and arrears were allowed for this rate on condition that the claim was filed prior to July 1, 1880. Dunlap claims in his suit that his claim was filed prior to this date and he also stated at this time that his mind had become impaired from his terrible head injury, and that the defendant in refusing the claim gives no legal cause for doing so.

Capt. Dunlap joined Company I, Second Illinois Volunteers when he was only nineteen and a half years old and before he served three years in the rebellion was made captain.

THE FIRE RECORD.

Nashville, Tennessee, Visited By a Destructive Blaze—Other Losses.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 26.—Last night at 9:30 o'clock the Baxter Court, the handsomest office building in Nashville was destroyed by fire, which originated in the engine room. The building cost $60,000 and was insured for $50,000. In the building were the offices of a number of leading lawyers, among them that of Ed. Baxter, general attorney of the Louisville & Nashville railway, who lost valuable libraries and papers; R. G. Dun & Company lost all their records, as did the Hermitage Insurance company.

Judge Matt W. Allen was at work on the sixth floor when the fire started and managed to fight his way to the second floor through smoke and flames, where, after desperate efforts he was rescued by firemen. He is very seriously burned and bruised by falling wreck.

The office of the Evening Banner and that of Riddle & Co. were damaged by smoke and water. The entire loss will be over $100,000 for building and libraries, but no estimate can be placed on the papers destroyed, some of which were invaluable. At 11:30 p. m. the fire was under perfect control.

A Hotel Burned.

MINER, Ill., Dec. 26.—The Union hotel, a saloon adjoining, C. C. Flower's livery stable, grocery and saloon owned by A. Schroeder, and P. A. Lower's grocery store were destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss will exceed $20,000. A heavy wind prevailed at the time, and a dreadful conflagration was prevented with great difficulty.

A $50,000 Loss.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Fire at 74 Read street last night caused $50,000 damage to the stocks of M. Katzenburg, boots and shoes; Frank & Weiss, pipes, and C. F. Congdon, hardware.

A Fire Raging at New Cumberland, W. Va. PITTSBURG, Dec. 26.—A special to the Times from Wheeling says that it is reported that a great fire is raging in New Cumberland, W. Va.

BLAINE WOULD ACCEPT.

He Is Said to Eagerly Desire the Portfolio of State.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The Herald's Augusta, Me., special says: That Mr. James G. Blaine wants to be secretary of state in President Harrison's cabinet is regarded here generally as a fact, and his Maine friends want him to have the place. He would not accept the mission to St. James, as the position would not be congenial to him.

The feeling here is that, if he is not invited into the cabinet, he will feel greatly disappointed, and will regard the failure to invite him as a slight. It is said that he frankly avowed to Gen. Alger, when that gentleman was here, that he would not be satisfied with any other position than that of secretary of state, and there is a belief that it has been tendered him. Mr. Blaine is extremely silent and will not allow himself to be interviewed. The silence he maintains appears also to have been imposed upon all around him.

"IS MARRIAGE A FAILURE?"

One More in the Chaska Family and Their Money All Gone.

FORT BENNELL, Dak., Dec. 26.—Mrs. Chaska, nee Cora Belle Fellows, the Washington society belle, who, with her Indian husband, achieved some notoriety about a year ago by exhibiting in dime museums, gave birth to a bouncing boy baby here yesterday. The couple came here from the reservation in order to secure the services of a white physician.

The small fortune they accumulated in their five weeks of exhibition is almost gone and they have nothing to show for it save an abundance of wearing apparel, horses and carriages, and farming implements. Chaska has not learned how to use the latter and is not likely to until starvation compels him.

Congressman Whitthorne Recovering.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Representative Whitthorne, of Tennessee, who has been ill at the Ebbitt house for some time, is in a much better condition to-day. He had a relapse yesterday morning from which he has entirely recovered.

THE POPE SPEAKS

He Gives Thanks in the Sacred College at Rome.

HIS JUBILEE HAS BROUGHT HIM MANY BLESSINGS.

A Violent and Bitter Speech, Referring Exclusively to the Vatican and Italy.

Doubts About the Whereabouts of Stanley—Other Foreign News.

ROME, Dec. 26.—The pope, addressing the sacred college, gave thanks to God for the blessings which his jubilee had brought him. He urged Catholics everywhere to agitate in a legal manner for the restoration of the papal supremacy. His address throughout was unusually violent and bitter.

The speech referred exclusively to the Vatican and Italy. His holiness said that the whole world saw in what a painful situation he was placed. At the same time a systematic war was being waged. Even the person of the pope was exposed to the threats of the mob. The enemies of the holy see had weapons enough already to injure the papacy, and if they did not suffice they were prepared to manufacture fresh weapons. It was persistently asserted that the pope was the enemy of Italy.

This assertion was simply made to mask the real object of the perfidious war against the church, and that object was to render Italians hostile to the papacy. To vindicate the rights of the pontiff was in reality to advance the prosperity of Italy. To demand that the greatest moral power in the world should possess real sovereignty in Italy, where Providence placed the church centuries ago, was not an act of hostility to the country. The fact that bishops in foreign lands were laboring for the restoration of the pope's temporal rights proved that the interests of the whole Catholic church were bound up in the cause.

Nihilists Aim at the Czar's Sister.

VIENNA, Dec. 26.—The Tagblatt has a dispatch saying that the Russian consul at Malta has been arrested on suspicion of having placed an explosive shell in the theater there while the duchess of Edinburgh was present. The consul refuses to answer questions. The English authorities believe that the affair is the outcome of a nihilist conspiracy.

To Explore Central China.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 26.—M. Martin, a French Siberian explorer, will soon start on an expedition to central China and the unexplored regions of eastern Tibet. He will have a small escort, and will carry with him a complete outfit of astronomical and topographical appliances. He will be gone three years.

A Dynamiter Arrested.

VIENNA, Dec. 26.—It is reported that the Russian consul at Malta, M. Vella, has been arrested on suspicion of placing a bomb in the theater at that place while the duchess of Edinburgh, Princess Marie, of Russia, was present. M. Vella has long been suspected of nihilist tendencies.

Rumors About Stanley.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—The Telegraph's Zanzibar correspondent informs his paper that all reports assaying to give details of a meeting between Stanley and Emin Bey are untrustworthy. At Zanzibar it is not believed that Stanley has succeeded in reaching Emin.

John Bright Has a Relapse.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—The last bulletin about Mr. Bright is unfavorable. It is announced that his lungs are in a worse condition than they have been for a fortnight past, and that he is becoming weaker. Renewed anxiety is felt as to the existence of organic disease.

Another Slaughter Imminent.

SUAKIM, Dec. 26.—Natives who have come here from Handoub report that Osman Digna intends to give battle again to the Egyptian and British forces.

THE ANARCHISTS' CASE.

Chicago's City Attorney's Reply to the Petition for an Injunction Against Police.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Corporation Counsel Green and Assistant Knight have finished the city's reply to the bill filed by the Anarchists in support of an injunction restraining the city from interfering with their meeting.

The reply asserts that the Arbeiter Bund, the society pressing the injunction suit, was organized for unlawful purposes, and that it agitated principally the destruction of the existing forms of society. It further relates that the Arbeiter Bund held a meeting in Mueller's hall on the evening of December 9. This meeting took the place of the advertised one in Grief's hall, which had been closed by the police.

There were inside and outside guards for the hall door, and it was thought that only avowed Anarchists were admitted. There were present 150 men and sixty women. To save themselves they met under the name of the Reichstag Verein. Albert Currin addressed the meeting in incendiary and unlawful language. He said that the Bund had failed to accomplish its purpose on November 11, but that it would continue in existence and in the end be successful in its objects—in the killing of Judges Gary and Grinnell and Inspector Bonfield.

Wednesday the Arbeiter Bund will file its answer, and Thursday the application for authority to sue for an injunction will be argued before Master in Chancery Windes.

Knee in an Elevator.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 26.—Yesterday afternoon Joseph Sturtevant, a nineteen-year-old messenger in the employ of Delworth, Porter & Company, drew $1,000 from bank and went to the Penn building to pay an account for that firm. Four men entered the elevator with him, jostling him roughly. Putting his hand into his coat pocket he found the money was not there. He accused the men of robbing him, but they laughed in his face, saying they did not think he would be trusted to carry so much money. While Sturtevant rushed to a telephone to notify the police the men took the down elevator and quickly left the building. There is no clue.

OPPOSITION TO POWDERLY.

The Chicago Coopers Withdraw From the Knights of Labor.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—The Evening News says the first real and decided opposition to the leadership of Powderly in the Knights of Labor to bear fruit that is ominous, was the unanimous withdrawal from the order last Friday night of the local Coopers' assembly. A red letter meeting was called to take place in their hall for the purpose of considering this very question, and when it came to a vote not a dissenting voice was raised to the proposition that the Coopers' assembly should withdraw.

It is probable now that within two weeks, all of the fifty-one local coopers' assemblies in the United States will also withdraw from the Knights of Labor, and form themselves into a National organization with a government and officers to suit the radical ideas of the members.

The cause of this revolutionary movement within the Knights of Labor dates back to the time of the inauguration of the great eight hour movement in 1886. The meeting held Friday night was the largest gathering of the Chicago coopers since the stock yards' strike, when Powderly ordered the thirty thousand men either to return to work on the ten-hour system, or to surrender the charters of their assemblies. The local assembly then had eight hundred members in Chicago. Because the assembly refused to withdraw from the Knights of Labor at that time this number has dwindled down until now but one hundred and fifty names are on the rolls of 2309.

Said George Schilling: "After the strike and the dissatisfaction growing out of Powderly's conduct, 250 coopers quit us in a body, and it has been impossible for us to get them back. Assembly 2309 really led the charge in the eight-hour movement in 1886, and the failure to carry out that fight is attributed to Powderly."

"Would this step have been taken had anyone besides Powderly been elected general master workman at the last National meeting?"

"I think it would. Nothing excepting a general cleaning out of the officers and a revision of the constitution to suit the self-government of the locals would have prevented it. The men wanted to withdraw after the Milwaukee meeting a year ago, but I prevented them. After this Indianapolis meeting nothing could have kept them in the order."

"Will this move be confined to the Chicago coopers alone?"

"Not by any means. In a few weeks you will hear that the majority of the fifty-one local coopers' assemblies in the Knights of Labor will have followed the example of Assembly 2309. The discontent is National. They don't like the National government of the Knights of Labor, and will go by themselves."

"Are you still with them?"

"No; I withdrew some time ago for reasons of my own. However, I attended the meeting the other night, and I know of the contemplated action of the future."

WRECK ON THE L. & N.

Two Passengers Killed, and Ten Others Seriously Injured.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 26.—A disastrous and fatal accident happened at 9 o'clock yesterday morning on the Louisville & Nashville road at Bardstown junction, twenty miles south of this city. The fast express, southbound, overtook and ran into the Knoxville branch accommodation going in the same direction. A disastrous wreck was the result. There were two passengers killed, and ten or more injured, besides the engineer and fireman of the second train was badly hurt.

Those killed were: Mrs. Mary Perkins, of Old Deposit, and Willie Houston, of Otter, Larue county.

The wounded are: E. R. Dickinson, of Bardstown, Ky.; Miss Bertha Flownbacker, of Bardstown; E. S. Miller, of Lebanon, Ky.; Phil D. Thompson, of Shepherdsville, Ky.; S. K. Adams and Miss Ada Adams, of Louisville; Mrs. J. R. Mount and Johnny Mount, of Lagrange, Ky.; Miss Mary Canard, of Louisville, Ky.; Miss Bertha Rhoner, of East Bernstadt, Ky.

The accident occurred, as stated, by a rear end collision. No. 23, the Knoxville bound passenger, was run into by No. 5. The fast Nashville train was on time and the accident no doubt occurred at just 9 o'clock. The Knoxville train was standing at the station and was run into by the Nashville train, demolishing the baggage car of the Nashville train and the two rear coaches of the Knoxville train. The train from Bowling Green that arrived at noon brought in three of the wounded passengers. All were considerably bruised, but none of them is thought to be fatally injured.

Engineer McFerran, of train No. 5, was badly burned and bruised. He may possibly recover, and is in a semi-conscious condition. Fireman Charles King, of same train, jumped and was seriously injured, but it is thought his injuries are not fatal. All the injured except the engineer and fireman were on the Knoxville train.

WIN CONTEST.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 26.—Sydney E. Mudd, the Republican candidate for congress in the Fifth district, has served formal notice upon Barnes Compton, the Democratic candidate, that he would contest his seat in the Fifty-first congress. Governor Jackson issued a certificate of election to Compton on a plurality of two votes. Mr. Mudd gives as reasons for contest that the Fifth election district in Charles county, which gave Compton 191 and Mudd 274 votes, was not included in the returns handed to the governor, because the judges in that district had by mistake put the books containing statements and certificates in the ballot-box, which was immediately sealed, and that the return judges were in consequence obliged to leave out the Fifth election district. The same allegation is made in the Ninth election district, which gave Mudd 158 and Compton 89 votes.

Suicided With Quinine.

DULUTH, Minn., Dec. 26.—Mrs. Jacob Zlin committed suicide early this morning after attending a concert by the German societies, where she had seemed in the best of spirits. She took a heavy dose of sulphate of quinine in her husband's presence, and died in half an hour. They had been married only seven hours.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
 Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY EVE., DEC. 26, 1888.

THE foreign Democracy is on the run, and the American people have about made up their minds that they are not yet ready to turn this great Republic over to the control of the worst elements of other countries.—Maysville Republican.

The above was uttered in speaking of the success of the anti-Catholic Republican ticket at Boston at the recent election. The language is an insult not only to every Irish, German and other foreign-born Democrat, but to every Catholic in the city and county. Our contemporary will probably hear from them.

THERE was a novel petition or memorial presented to Congress a few days ago by John H. Thomas, of Springfield, O. Mr. Thomas is a big manufacturer of agricultural implements, and at the same time is largely interested in the raising of wheat. His memorial has a direct bearing on that everlasting subject of the tariff. Among other things he says:

In order that the wheat raiser may be put on an equality with other interests, I ask that a fund be provided from which to pay the growers of wheat a bounty of twenty cents a bushel on what they raise, to compensate them for the burdens imposed for the benefit of manufacturers, and to compensate them for the higher-priced labor by which they are forced to raise their wheat. And, as a proper way to raise this fund, I suggest that a tax be levied on the manufacturers of protected goods, the price of whose products are increased by protection. Or, if a fund cannot be raised in this way, then that some other method be devised to raise such a fund. As I understand it, it would require a fund of about $90,000,000 annually, which sum is not one-fourth as much as the increased price the farmers now pay on home-made goods by reason of protection, under which the manufacturers are enabled to increase their price to unfair profits.

Here is the testimony of one who has learned from experience how the high tariff robs one class—the farmers, for instance—for the benefit of another—how it robs the many for the benefit of the few.

THE editor of the Republican, true to his characteristic traits, distorts the recent city election at Boston into a political fight. He says:

The modest but able editor of THE EVENING BULLETIN proverbially eager to find a peg upon which to hang his wilted bandana, is painfully silent as to the recent election in Boston. Why doesn't he tell his readers that on the 6th of November Cleveland carried that city by more than 8,000 majority, while at an election held on the 11th of December the Republicans captured the Mayorality for the first time in many years? Moreover, of eleven new members of the School Board not a solitary Democrat was chosen. The foreign Democracy are on the run, and the American people have about made up their minds that they are not yet ready to turn this great Republic over to the control of the worst elements of other countries.

The editor of the Republican knew when he penned the above that it did not express the real facts of the case. We will let the Catholic Universe, of Cleveland, O., answer him. The Universe says:

Our readers are aware that at a recent election in Boston a declared anti-Catholic ticket was nominated for the School Board by the Republicans, and that their candidates were elected. The success of the ostracizing ticket was due to thousands of women voters who stopped over to "down the Catholics." We fail to see the downing.

If Republicanism means anti-Catholicism then was the result at Boston a Republican victory?

Does our contemporary mean Catholics when he refers to "the worst elements of other countries?" That is the only construction one can place on his language since he knew when he penned the above that the fight at Boston was against the Catholics.

"Si Perkins."

On Friday evening City Hall was crowded to see Frank Jones in "Si Perkins." The play is a good one and the artists are first-class in every respect. The audience kept up a continued round of applause from beginning to end, and to say that they were well satisfied with the performance would be putting it too mild.—Cape Ann Breeze, Gloucester, Mass.

In Memory of Professor Richeson.

A called meeting of teachers was held at the residence of Professor J. H. Kappes Tuesday evening, to take appropriate action on the death of Professor W. W. Richeson.

On motion, G. W. Blatterman was made chairman and L. W. Galbraith secretary. Mr. Blatterman on taking the chair paid a feeling tribute to the memory of Professor Richeson, giving an outline sketch of his career. He was born in 1809 in King William County, Va. Before entering the University in 1825 he had attended an academy taught by Captain Thomas Mauray, uncle of Commodore Mauray. After his graduation at the University he moved to Kentucky in 1831, and began his life-work as a teacher. Professor Richeson was a large-hearted and liberal-minded man, but modest and unobtrusive. He was very thorough in training, and his pupils always entertained a very high opinion of him.

Mr. Blatterman was followed by Mr. Galbraith, who spoke with reverence of Professor Richeson, emphasizing especially his devotion to his profession and his influence on the character of his pupils. His whole influence was for the right, and though he ceases to work, his work goes on.

Professor Smith spoke tenderly of his friendly relation with the deceased, and Professor Hall said that he was one of the most sympathetic teachers he had ever known. Though not demonstrative, he was constant in his kindness. He bore testimony to the thoroughness of the training given by Professor Richeson to his pupils. Professor Kappes closed the remarks with a fitting tribute to the life-work of this great teacher. Success in life is unmeasured by influence; when gauged by this standard how grand the results, and how great the success of the life of Professor Richeson. We should keep his memory long in our hearts and imitate his virtues.

Professor C. J. Hall moved the appointment of a committee on resolutions, whereupon the chair named Professors C. J. Hall, L. W. Galbraith, J. H. Kappes, Miss Amy N. Phister and Miss Belle Golling, and the chairman, G. W. Blatterman, was added to the committee, on motion.

The entire proceedings of the meeting was characterized by that solemnity and reverence fitting the occasion. The report of the committee on resolutions was unanimously adopted as follows:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the all-wise and merciful God to call to his appointed heavenly rest our honored friend and co-worker, Professor William West Richeson, who departed this life on Sunday, December 23rd.

Resolved, That it is with sincere sorrow we deplore the loss of one who was a valuable member of society and an honored member of the profession.

Resolved, That we point with just pride to his career as a teacher—a career in which for more than half a century, he impressed himself powerfully on the educational in crest of North-eastern Kentucky. Among his contemporaries he stood without a superior; and brought to the duties of the school room a ripe scholarship, and required thoroughness at the hands of his pupils. But above his excellent abilities, it was his simplicity and dignity of character with his devotion to his vocation that bore him out in his splendid success; and enabled him to take such deep hold on the purposes and lives of his pupils. To us who belong to the profession that he elevated and ennobled, for so many years, his life is fraught with a profound lesson. He stands before us an exemplar, not only of a noble manhood, but of a true teacher, showing us how we should go in and out before our pupils; while the lesson of his influence, all on the side of right and human happiness, radiating through the lives of his pupils an ever increasing blessing, should inspire us with new courage and joy in the great work in which we are engaged.

Resolved, That we tender to his family our earnest and sincere condolence and assurance of our sympathy in their bereavement.

Resolved, That we attend in a body the services appointed for the last earthly memorial of our departed friend to be held in the First Presbyterian Church in this city on the 26th.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the bereaved family.

We belong to no millers' association or trust. Therefore, we can make prices to suit the times. Our "Magnolia Patent," "Blue Grass Fancy," and "Kentucky Belle Family," brands of flour, full roller process, are guaranteed to be equal to any made in Maysville. Try a barrel and be convinced. Will sack flour in any size sack you wish. Highest market price paid for corn. Meal and hominy ground or exchanged. Your patronage solicited. Respectfully, CARR & TOLLE, Proprietors Magnolia Mills, Fourth St., Maysville. d8d5w

REV. W. B. COOPER, an evangelist of the Presbyterian Church who preaches in some of the mountain parts of this State, including Morehead, gives an encouraging account of the state of morals in that town which has so recently attracted the attention of the country for its disorder. He says the people are strong minded and many of them people of cultivation. He says Boone Logan is an attendant upon his religious services, and though not a churchman is an attentive and apparently interested listener.

THE latest novelties in jewelry at Balenger's are just the things for Christmas presents. He also keeps a full stock of gold watches, diamond studs, rings, earrings and pins, sterling silverware and gold-headed canes and umbrellas.

DO not forget the Cadet Supper to-night at Neptune Hall. All the good things of the season can be had, and the Maysville orchestra will be there to enliven the occasion with music. Lots of fun and a good time promised. Everybody should attend.

THE universal verdict of our people is that the display of fine goods was never before equaled in our city. Allen, Thomas & Co. are leaders in the display, and their store is constantly crowded with admirers of their handsome selection. Call and buy what you want for Christmas presents before the stock is picked over.

A FEW pieces of Royal Worcester, Doulton and other fine wares are still left, but Allen, Thomas & Co. are determined to sell them this Christmas if prices are any inducement. We are now offering them at less than Cincinnati prices, and this will probably be the last opportunity you will have to by these goods at home. Call and get your piece before they are all picked over. Remember the place, Allen, Thomas & Co's. dtf

Cotton Steamer Burned.
Special to the EVENING BULLETIN.
CINCINNATI, December 26.—A cotton steamer burned Christmas morning near New Orleans. Over thirty lives lost. There was a kerosene explosion at Chicago early this morning. Three persons killed.

"THE BIG FOUR."

Their Aspirations May Interfere With the Political Prospects of Several Maysvillians.

The Louisville Commercial has this to say of the Central Kentucky "Big Four": "Colonel W. O. Bradley, of Lancaster, as the leading Republican of the State, is first considered. If General Harrison insisted he would go in the Cabinet, but if the President selects some other Southern Republican, Colonel Bradley will content himself with a foreign mission he will probably ask to be sent to Mexico, and his fellow Republicans in this State will indorse his application.

"Colonel William Cassius Goodloe, of Lexington, is a modest man. It is said that he will be satisfied of the Lexington district, and he can have that office for the asking. It pays $4,500 a year.

Colonel A. M. Swope, of Lexington, wants to go West and grow up with the country. He will select a Territorial Governorship, and it is probable that General Harrison will see that he is provided for.

"Colonel George Denny, of Lexington, will be a candidate for District Attorney, if that fat office is not already pre-empted. He has strong backing, and will no doubt be handsomely remembered in some direction."

Kentucky Central to Be Sold.

The Courier-Journal says: "The Kentucky Central Railroad, which for over a year has, according to rumor, been sold and resold dozens of times, but which has never, according to fact, changed hands, is at last to be sold, and it is reported that the Louisville and Nashville is in the field for its purchase, and will shortly make a bid on it.

"Mr. C. P. Huntington, who owns a controlling interest in the Kentucky Central, has decided to sell out, and has issued a circular, advising all of its stockholders by disposing of their stock they can obtain the same price for their holdings that he himself is to get for his 51 per cent. of the shares. He does not intimate just who is to buy his part of the stock, or who wants to buy the remaining 49 per cent., but the idea is prevalent among informed railroad men that the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia will realize one of its pet schemes, which it has been nursing for some time, and 'scoop in' the Central, in order to give it the long-desired line into Cincinnati. Mr. Huntington, it is said, is to sell his stock by January 1st, and it is very probable that a great majority of the holders will dispose of their belongings at the same time, as the stock is now quoted at a comfortable figure."

Xmas Shooting.

Jim Washington emptied both barrels of a shot gun into Jim Jones' face last Monday afternoon. Both parties are colored and the shooting occurred in the "King House" on the Fleming pike. No one saw the affair. The unfortunate man's chin and jaw was shot literally away and the nose is undermined. The men had been drinking socially together during the day and were seemingly on good terms. They had had no quarrel, but as Jones was about entering a room in the "King House" Washington stepped from behind the door and without a word fired both barrels with deadly effect. Dr. Cleon C. Owens called in and rendered such medical aid as could be given. A temporary mouth has been made for the wounded man. The chances are all against his recovery and he is likely to die most any hour from lock-jaw. Soon after the shooting Washington boarded a Big Sandy train going East and has not been heard from since. Washington was a driver for one of Otto's beer wagons and Jones is a Virginia negro.

Judge Andrews.

Landoff Watson Andrews died at his home in Flemingsburg last Sunday and was buried yesterday. He had been sick for several weeks and on account of his advanced age his death was not unexpected. He was born near Flemingsburg, February 12, 1803 and has always resided in Fleming County. His father Robert Andrews and his mother Martha Darity Andrews were born in Pennsylvania and were of Scotch-Irish extraction. His father was a merchant, farmer and tanner and removed to Kentucky in about 1795. The subject of this sketch was one of ten children all of whom are now dead. The early life of L. W. Andrews was spent upon his father's farm. He was carefully educated and graduated from Transylvania University in 1824. After leaving school he commenced reading law under Circuit Judge William P. Roper and was licensed to practice in January, 1826. His license was written by James Crawford and approved by Judge Roper and Judge Robbins. He was elected to the Legislature on the Whig ticket in 1834 and made his mark as a member of the Judiciary Committee. He was twice re-elected in succession before he again turned his attention to his profession. In 1857 the Democrats and Know Nothings elected him to the State Senate. In 1861 he again became a member of the House and participated in the historic session of 1861-1862, but before the expiration of his term he was elected Circuit Judge which office he held until 1868, when he resumed his law practice. In 1826 he married Miss Bessie Dorsey of Flemingsburg, a daughter of Dr. Edward Dorsey. His marriage was blessed with two children; Juliet who married William L. Sudduth and Margaret, who died in 1864.

His wife, Mrs. Bessie Andrews died in 1862. Judge Andrews led a busy, active life, and filled every position to which he was called with credit and ability. He leaves a stainless name and a spotless reputation. He will be missed by all and mourned by many. Peace to his ashes.

VICTORY IS OURS.

The Haytian Republic Surrendered by Hayti.

TWENTY-ONE SHOTS FIRED IN TOKEN OF HER OBEISANCE.

The Eventful Record of One Week of General Legitime's Life—French Interference in Hayti—The Official Notice Received in Washington.

KINGSTOWN, Jamaica, Dec. 26.—Hayti's black ruler, Gen. Legitime, passed from triumph to humiliation in quick succession last week. On Sunday he was elected president, on Tuesday he was inaugurated, and on Thursday he was forced to surrender the steamer Haytian Republic under peril of bombardment by the Galena and Yantic.

I have just arrived here from Port-au-Prince in the Arran, which left there last Friday. The Sunday previous the day fixed for the joint session of the senate and assembly to elect a president. When the joint convention met it was, of course, a foregone conclusion, that Gen. Legitime would be elected president, and the deputies hastened to do what was expected of them. Forty-four votes were recorded for Legitime; all other candidates nothing. Then the populace gave itself up to hilarity and tafia.

Tuesday was inauguration day and a general holiday was decreed. The ceremonies consisted of the usual inauguration oath-taking in public, a pompous high mass at the cathedral, a grand parade of the tattered demagogic troops and a banquet at the palace in the afternoon. The whole population, the troops and the officials, were on a prolonged jam-boree all that day and the next.

Possibly that fact may account for the failure of Minister Preston's well planned scheme to save the Haytian government the humiliation of being forced to surrender the steamer Haytian Republic to the United States warships. Thursday evening Mr. Peters, the agent for the Atlas line of steamers, notified President Legitime that, in accordance with a contract his company had made with Minister Preston in New York, he had brought a crew for the Haytian Republic and was ready to take her north at once. President Legitime promised to lay the matter before the cabinet, and a cabinet meeting was held next morning, the 19th.

Whether the president and his advisers were really incapable of grasping Minister Preston's plan, or were temporarily merely belligerent from enthusiasm and tafia, it is not possible to state. The result was, however, that the minister of foreign affairs notified Mr. Peters that the government could not understand Minister Preston's scheme, and therefore would not send the vessel to New York.

Early Thursday morning the Yantic and Galena, the latter flying the flag of Rear Admiral Luce, arrived in the outer harbor. Admiral Luce quickly shifted his flag to the Yantic, and the latter steamed into the inner harbor. Anchoring a short cable length from the Haytian Republic, the Yantic ran a hawser from her stern to the alleged prize, and simultaneously sent her gig, containing Commander Heyerman and Flag Lieut. Meigs, ashore to communicate with Minister Thompson.

These officers then accompanied the minister to the president's palace, and demanded the delivery of the Haytian Republic to the United States naval commander in the outer harbor. If the steamer were not delivered before sunset the United States ships would take her by force, and if resistance were offered they would shell the city. In order that there should be no delay the Galena sent boats to the vessels in the harbor with word to get out of range, and the foreign consuls were notified of the possibility of an early beginning of hostilities. The admiral's demand also called for a salute of twenty-one guns to the United States flag, and the payment of an indemnity to the owners of the Haytian Republic.

Legitime and his advisers suddenly realized that they had an elephant on their hands. It was evident that they no longer regarded the seizure of a vessel flying the United States flag as such a smart piece of business after all. In hot haste they hurried a small steamer alongside of the Haytian Republic, from whose masthead and peak still floated the National colors, which plucky Capt. Compton had insisted on keeping shore.

The captain was on hand to receive his ship back, and at 5 o'clock she was towed to the harbor, and brought to anchor near the Galena. Then the Haytian gunboat Desalines run the stars and stripes up to her foremast head and fired a salute of twenty-one guns. The Galena returned the salute. The vessel was released under protest, although the Haytians agreed to abide by the decision of our government.

A crew for the Haytian Republic will be selected from the crews of the Galena and Yantic, and the steamer will at once be started for New York, since it is desirable to get her out of the yellow fever locality as quickly as possible. It is reported that the indemnity demanded for the Haytian Republic's owners and the United States government was $350,000.

French Interference in Hayti.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—It is believed here that the French minister in Hayti had instructed the agent in Port-au-Prince for the French Compagnie-Transatlantique to go to Boston to secure a steamer for Legitime. The partisans of Hyppolite in this city were indignant at this interference in their country's affairs by the French government.

Official Notice in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Secretary Whitney has received a cable message from Rear Admiral Luce, in command of the United States steamer Galena, at Kingston, Jamaica, saying that the American steamer Haytian Republic, recently seized at Port-au-Prince, by the Haytian authorities, had been surrendered to him upon demand.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—The Chicago Opera house, which was almost ruined by fire and water ten days ago, was reopened last night by Bolossy Kiralfy's "Water Queen," presented for the first time in America. The theater has been entirely redecorated, a temporary ceiling has been erected, new carpets and draperies have been put in and the theater presents even a more magnificent appearance than it formerly did. Hundreds of people were turned away, unable to obtain admission and the crowded house received the changes that had been made and the new play with every demonstration of approval.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a Terse and Spicy Manner.

A. G. O'Donnell has been appointed United States gauger at Sandusky, O. Senator Beck arrived in Savannah Monday and will spend some time there.

A wealthy and fashionable lady of Chicago pleaded guilty to the charge of shoplifting. President-elect Harrison will go to Washington five or six days before his inauguration.

Ex-Senator Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia, was one of Gen. Harrison's visitors yesterday.

A son of the late Gen. McClellan has been appointed an aide-de-camp on Governor Hill's staff.

It is rumored at Washington that Senator Sherman, in the interest of harmony in Ohio, has suggested that Maj. McKinley be made secretary of the treasury. Maj. McKinley says that he is not aware of any such movement.

Indiana Democrats are now claiming that the Dudley letter was a scheme to divert attention from New York, in order that the Republicans might carry the state while their opponents concentrated their efforts on Indiana.

Dudley Luttrell shot and instantly killed J. M. Moyer and mortally wounded John Christian at Harneyville, Chickasaw Nation, Sunday. Moyer and Christian were two of the most prominent cattlemen and merchants in the Chickasaw Nation.

A LIVING STIFF.

Rare Case for the Medicos in a New York Hospital.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Some doctors visited a man whose body had been as stiff as a rail for the last thirty-one years, and who is as helpless as a pappoose, at the Manhattan hotel, in Fourteenth street, yesterday afternoon. In 1840 he weighed 160 pounds, but ossification set in, which in ten years left him in the state in which he has remained for over thirty years. Now he weighs seventy pounds, and is blind. He is without pain, and said he was perfectly happy. He spends his time thinking.

Among his visitors yesterday were Police Surgeon A. W. Ford, of Brooklyn, and Drs. J. H. Wheeler and Buck, of this city. The man told his own history. He is J. B. Bass, fifty-eight years old, and he came from near Niagara Falls. While in the lumber and canal business he was much exposed and often got very wet. What appeared to be inflammatory rheumatism set in, for which he was treated for several years. It resulted in a stiffening of the joints.

His legs are mostly bone, with but a slight covering of flesh. The line from his head to his heels along his back is nearly straight. The finger nails of the left hand have not been cut for thirty years, and they have grown out into curls half a foot long. The nails of the other hand are trimmed. The arms are as rigid as the legs, and the cartilage between the vertebrae is ossified. Bass was taken up and placed on his feet.

"Can you bend yourself at the waist?" asked one of the doctors.

"Mercy, no," said the mummy-like individual. "No more than a crow bar can."

The man's heart was declared by the doctors to be about normal, and his appetite is excellent, but as his jaws are rigid, his food is artificially masticated. He is in the show business.

Deed of a Brutal Husband.

SPRINGVALE, Me., Dec. 26.—On Thursday last John Bernier, a French Canadian, was convicted of cruel and abusive treatment of his wife. He was heard to threaten to "get even" with her. On Friday morning a doctor was called to Mrs. Bernier, and found her suffering from poisoning with Paris green, which her husband said she had taken despite his efforts to prevent. The next day it was learned that she was dead. An examination of the facts seems to show that on Friday night, while the woman was still suffering from the poison, Bernier beat her cruelly, and thrust her out doors in the bitter cold. She crept back and he beat her again, until satisfied. She died Sunday. An inquest will be held at once. The deceased leaves three little children, the youngest only two months old.

Horse Trained at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 26.—An epidemic is spreading among the horses owned in this city. The street car company had forty sick horses in their barn yesterday, and their service was seriously crippled. The disease is a new one to the veterinary surgeons, and they are baffled in its treatment. The disease apparently affects the glands of the throat. In a majority of cases it causes a swelling, which extends from the point of the jaw to the breast. This makes breathing and eating matters of great difficulty. As a result the animal rapidly grows weak and loses flesh.

A Newspaper Enterprise.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 26.—This city is at last to have a cheap morning newspaper. The Telegram, which for the past four years has been an afternoon sheet, has merged into a bright and newsy morning two cent paper. There will be no change in the style, policy or politics of the paper. It is under the same management as heretofore, and it is fully equipped with the necessary telegraphic franchises, and its entire staff is made up of trained and reliable journalists. The prospect for its future seems very bright.

Forming a Big Syndicate.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 26.—It is reported here that a syndicate of New York capitalists has offered the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad company $50,000,000 for its collieries and coal lands in the Lackawanna and Wyoming regions. The syndicate, it is further stated, guarantees to transport all its coal over the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western road if the sale is effected.

If You Are Sick

With Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Blood Humors, Kidney Disease, Constipation, Female Troubles, Fever and Ague, Sleeplessness, Partial Paralysis, or Nervous Prostration, use Paine's Celery Compound and be cured. In each of these the cause is mental or physical overwork, anxiety, exposure or malaria, the effect of which is to weaken the nervous system, resulting in one of these diseases. Remove the cause with that great Nerve Tonic, and the result will disappear.

Paine's Celery Compound

Jas. L. Bowen, Springfield, Mass., writes:—Paine's Celery Compound cannot be excelled as a Nerve Tonic. In my case a single bottle wrought a great change. My nervousness entirely disappeared, and with it the resulting affection of the stomach, heart and liver, and the whole tone of the system was wonderfully invigorated. I tell my friends, if sick as I have been, Paine's Celery Compound.
